I hereby request legal aid with effect from _____ (Date) in accordance with the law of 10th August 1991 on the legal profession, as amended and I further declare that I am not entitled, in any capacity, to reimbursement by a third party of expenses to be covered by legal aid.

The undersigned acknowledges and accepts that in accordance with Art. 37-1 (6) of the Law of 10th August 1991 on the legal profession, as amended, the President of the Bar Association may withdraw legal aid if the beneficiary accrues financial means during the proceedings or during the completion of these measures or as a result of such proceedings or measures which, had they existed on the day that legal aid was requested, would have precluded any such entitlement. Any changes of this nature, as well as any change of address, must be declared to the President of the Bar Association by the beneficiary or by the lawyer appointed, as provided for in subsection (9) of the aforementioned article.

I hereby certify that the information I have provided on this form is true, accurate and complete.

I acknowledge by my signature, that I have been informed that:

- any false statements and/or information may lead to prosecution* and/or the full withdrawal of legal aid;
- any such withdrawal renders all costs, charges, fees, allowances, payments, emoluments, deposits and advances of any nature already disbursed on behalf of the applicant immediately payable by the applicant.

Protection of personal data

The personal data communicated within the framework of the present application for legal aid are processed by the territorially competent Bar Association, in their quality of responsible for processing, represented by the Presidents of the bar at present in function.

The processing of data is performed in compliance with the provisions of the regulation (EU) 2016/679 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data ("GDPR") and of the law of 1st August 2018 relating the organisation of the National Commission for Data Protection and the implementation of the GDPR.

The operated processing is necessary for the execution of a mission of public interest with which the responsible for processing is invested by virtue of the law of 10th August 1991 on the legal profession, as amended and the grand ducal regulation of 18th September 1995, as amended.

The data collected through this form, as well as all other data that is required for the processing of the application, is used exclusively for the administration and the control by the Luxembourg Bar Association and/or the Diekirch Bar Association relating to the applications for legal aid and their follow-up.

The processing of your data is the object of a treatment to achieve a successful conclusion for your application and it's made in compliance with the applicable legal provisions to which the responsible for processing is subjected.

The data and information are kept for the time necessary to achieve the purposes of the processing.

* Article 496-1 of the Penal Code.

The addressees of your data are the following administrations and entities, competent within the framework of the processing of your application:

- The Ministry of Justice;
- The judicial and administrative authorities;
- The lawyers in charge of the file;
- Our subcontractors in charge of the IT infrastructure;
- The Administration of the Recording and Domains;
- The Chamber of the Bailiffs;
- The Chamber of Notaries;
- Disciplinary and administrative Council;
- Disciplinary and administrative Council of appeal.

The addressees of the personal data will process your data only in the necessary measure for the execution of their respective missions, and in compliance with the applicable regulations.

According to the terms of the applicable regulations, the right of access and of rectification, and if necessary, the right to erase data concerning you, can be exercised, particularly the right to object to the processing of your data and to withdraw your consent at any time. However, in case of withdraw of your consent, we will be unable to process your application insofar as this data is essential for the treatment of the application for legal aid and its follow-up.

If you wish to exercise the above-mentioned rights, to obtain communication of your information or to receive any additional information on this matter, please contact the Luxembourg Bar Association 2A, Boulevard Joseph II, L-1840 Luxembourg or the Diekirch Bar Association B.P. 68, L-9202 Diekirch, or by e-mail dpo@barreau.lu for the Luxembourg Bar Association or info.diekirch@barreau.lu for the Diekirch Bar Association. Your request will be handled as soon as possible.

You also have the possibility to lodge a complaint with the National Commission for Data Protection having his seat in 1, Avenue du Rock'n'Roll, L-4361 Esch-sur-Alzette.
